

Anita Allcorn-Walker is vice president and comptroller of Alabama Power Company, which provides electricity to more than 1.4 million customers across the state.

Allcorn-Walker joined the company in 1990 and has served in a variety of financial and leadership roles in the areas of accounting, financial planning, finance, treasury, trust finance, budgeting, and internal audit. Allcorn-Walker has been an officer of the company since 2006.

Additionally, Allcorn-Walker is active in the community where she serves on the Alabama Power Foundation board and the advisory board and finance committee of the Salvation Army Greater Birmingham Area Command. She and her family are active in Pine Grove Baptist Church where she serves with the youth and music ministries.

Allcorn-Walker is a graduate of the Momentum Leadership program. In 2013, she was a recipient of the Girl Scout Woman of Distinction award. In 2017, she was selected as one of 30 women who shape the state by Birmingham Magazine.

Allcorn-Walker graduated with a bachelor of science degree in commerce and business administration with a major in accounting from the University of Alabama and a master's degree in business administration from Samford University. She is a certified public accountant in the state of Alabama and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants

Allcorn-Walker and her husband, Robert Walker, have two children.

Anita Allcorn-Walker

Vice President and Comptroller
Alabama Power
Company

