

Myla E. Calhoun is vice president of the Birmingham Division, where she is responsible for the company's operations, sales, economic and community development, and external affairs activities for more than 430,000 customers across six counties in north central Alabama.

Calhoun most recently served as president of the Alabama Power Foundation and vice president of Charitable Giving for Alabama Power, awarding grants to Alabama nonprofits, education institutions and community organizations.

Prior to joining Alabama Power, Calhoun was general counsel and senior vice president of Regional Development and Public Policy for the Birmingham Business Alliance, where she led diverse teams focused on regional revitalization, workforce development, education initiatives and young professionals engagement.

Calhoun previously served as legal counsel for United States Pipe and Foundry Company LLC. Before joining U.S. Pipe, she was associated with Spain & Gillon LLC, where her practice focused on urban renewal and revitalization, municipal finance and governmental affairs.

Calhoun is a 2018 Aspen Institute Ascend Fellow and a member of the advisory board for Stonehenge Capital, a nationally recognized leader in community development finance. She is a member of the Alabama Workforce Council and serves on the boards of directors for Children's of Alabama, the Community Foundation of Greater Birmingham, Opportunity Alabama, Ed Farm, the Birmingham Museum of Art, Indian Springs School and the Virginia Samford Theatre. She previously served on the board of trustees at Tuskegee University.

Myla E. Calhoun
Vice President of the Birmingham Division,
Alabama Power

Calhoun is a graduate of Spelman College in Atlanta, Georgia, and the University of Alabama School of Law. She is the proud mother of two daughters.

