

Susan B. Comensky's is vice president at Alabama Power Company with responsibility for Environmental Affairs, a position she was elected to in 2016. Comensky joined Southern Company in 1984. She has held leadership positions at Alabama Power Company and Southern Company Services in business development, commercial and industrial marketing, wholesale contracting and strategy development.

Comensky previously served as director of Gas Services and director of Coal Services for Southern Company and was named vice president of External and Regulatory Affairs for Southern Power in 2011, with responsibility for external affairs, land management, environmental affairs, transmission and corporate communication.

Susan B. Comensky
Vice President,
Environmental Affairs
Alabama Power
Company

She also served as Southern Power's compliance officer. Comensky serves on the board of directors of the Freshwater Land Trust, the Alabama Wildlife Federation and the board of directors for the Alabama Power Company Foundation.

Comensky has a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Alabama and a master's degree in business administration from Samford University.

