

Anita Allcorn is senior vice president and comptroller of Alabama Power Company, which provides electricity to more than 1.5 million customers across the state.

Allcorn joined the company in 1990 and has served in a variety of financial and leadership roles in the areas of Accounting, Financial Planning, Finance, Treasury, Trust Finance, Budgeting and Internal Auditing. Allcorn has been an officer of the company since 2006.

Additionally, Allcorn is active in the community, where she serves on the Alabama Power Foundation board and the advisory board and finance committee of the Salvation Army Greater Birmingham Area Command. She is active in Pine Grove Baptist Church, where she serves with the youth and music ministries.

Anita Allcorn

Senior Vice President and Comptroller
Alabama Power
Company

Allcorn is a graduate of the Momentum Leadership program. In 2013, she was a recipient of the Girl Scout Woman of Distinction award. In 2017, she was selected by Birmingham Magazine as one of 30 women who shape the state. In 2021, she was recognized as a distinguished business leader by the Women Business Leaders of Birmingham.

Allcorn earned a Bachelor of Science degree in commerce and business administration with a major in accounting from the University of Alabama and a Master's degree in business administration from Samford University. She is a certified public accountant in the state of Alabama, is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants.

