

Mike Jordan serves as vice president of Mobile Division. In this role, he oversees community and economic development initiatives and external affairs in the southwest region of the state. He brings his experience and external focus from Southern Division, where he served as area manager from 2013 to 2025. In this role, he had direct or supervisory responsibilities for Alabama Power's external activities in a 13-county region of south and central Alabama.

Prior to joining Alabama Power, Jordan served on the staff of Gov. Fob James and as public information officer for the Alabama House of Representatives. He began his career with Alabama Power in 2008 as legislative affairs manager. In this role, he helped craft state energy policy and maintained positive relationships with members of the Alabama Legislature as well as statewide elected leadership. He transitioned to the area manager role in 2013.

Mike Jordan
Vice President
Mobile Division
Alabama Power

Jordan is an active deacon in his church and serves as teacher of 5th/6th grade Sunday school. Within the communities he helped to support, Jordan served as a member of local economic and community development organizations in Butler, Chilton, and Montgomery Counties and was recently elected to serve as Chair of the Region 5 Regional Workforce Development Board. He is also proud to serve on the boards of multiple not-for-profit boards and organizations including Past Chair of the American Red Cross of Central Alabama, Baptist Health Foundation, Boy Scouts of America – Tukabatchee Council, Freedom Rides Museum Board, and Ingram State Community College Foundation Advisory Board.

Jordan graduated from Samford University with degrees in history and political science. He received his master's degree in public administration from Troy University.

Jordan and his wife, Alissa, are the proud parents of three beautiful girls – Anna, Molly Kate, and Abby.

