

Sean Monte

Vice President, Regulatory Affairs

Sean Monte is vice president of Regulatory Affairs for Alabama Power Company. In his role, he is responsible for overseeing the companies' work with the Alabama Public Service Commission, working on behalf of the customers and communities Alabama Power serves.

Prior to his current role, Monte served as director of Regulatory Policy and Planning. He and his team were responsible for developing and implementing the company's regulatory strategy around key policy issues affecting regulators, customers and company interests.

Additionally, his team managed the execution of Alabama Power's rate filings associated with its various cost recovery clauses and facilitated the transmittal of information required by the Alabama Public Service Commission as part of its ongoing, routine monitoring of these filings and other company business.

Monte joined Southern Company in 1997 as a co-op student in Engineering and Construction Services and held various positions with increasing responsibility in Engineering and Construction Services, System Planning and Research and Environmental Affairs.

In 2010, he joined Alabama Power in the role of assistant-to the senior vice president and senior production officer and has since progressed through management roles in Alabama Power's Resource Planning and Regulatory Affairs organizations.

He is a graduate of Leadership Hoover's Class of 2024, was the president of the board of directors for Shades Mountain Community Park in Hoover from 2017-2020 and was president of the Kiwanis Club of Metropolitan Birmingham. Monte also served as lieutenant governor for the Alabama District of Kiwanis International. Monte has a passion for youth sports and has been very active in Hoover over the years as a youth coach.

Monte earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Mississippi State University and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Alabama Power

© ALABAMA POWER