

Stacey Turner is Vice President of Environmental Affairs, a position she was elected to in 2025. Stacey's responsibilities include environmental compliance and strategy, as well as the company's environmental stewardship programs and operations.

Stacey previously served as associate general counsel for Environmental Policy and Litigation for Southern Company Services Inc. In this role she advised on environmental advocacy, policy, litigation and compliance across all environmental media. She also provided legal support and guidance for Southern Company's stewardship, conservation and land management programs.

Before joining SCS, Stacey managed a team of lawyers at Georgia Power Company supporting external affairs and served as Georgia Power's lead environmental attorney. While at Georgia Power, Stacey was recognized by Georgia Trend as a member of the Georgia "Legal Elite."

Stacey Turner
Vice President of Environmental Affairs
Alabama Power

Stacey began her career at Morris, Manning & Martin in Atlanta, where she counseled a broad spectrum of business and industry clients on environmental liability allocation and resolution, brownfield redevelopment, litigation and compliance. Stacey was named as a Georgia Leading Lawyer in Environmental Law by Chambers USA and recognized as a Rising Star by Atlanta magazine in 2007, 2008 and 2010.

Stacey has served on the boards of the Atlanta-Fulton County Public Library Foundation, the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation, Buckhead Christian Ministries, the Chattahoochee Nature Center and the Georgia Brownfield Association, where she was a founding director. She is also a member of the Institute for Georgia Environmental Leadership.

Stacey has a Juris Doctor from the University of Michigan Law School, a master's degree from the Columbia University's Graduate School of Journalism and a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Florida. She lives in Homewood, Alabama.

