

Richard Hutto is Vice President of Regulatory Affairs at Alabama Power.

Hutto began his career at Alabama Power in 1980 as a co-op student while attending Auburn University. He has held positions with the company in Power Delivery, Marketing, Economic Development, Governmental Relations, External Affairs and Regulatory Affairs. He has served as Assistant to the Senior Vice President – External Affairs, Manager of Federal Affairs in Washington, D.C., and Manager of Budget & Regulatory Planning.

Richard Hutto
Vice President,
Regulatory Affairs
Alabama Power
Company

Hutto holds a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering and an MBA from Auburn University. He and his wife, Alisa, reside in Trussville. They have two adult Daughters: Heather Cates (Jonny) and Haleigh Blake (Taylor), and three granddaughters, Addie, Ansleigh and Olivia.

He enjoys golfing, boating and spending time with his family.

